THE RAILROAD TAX BILL.
San Francisco Chronicle.
Health's bill to amend the constitution so as to impose on the railroad a tax of 2 1/2 per cent. on gross earnings in lieu of all other taxes passed the Assembly on Thursday by the decisive vote of 17 to 10. Strange to say, many who have hitherto been identified with anti-monopoly—such as Reeves and San Bernardino, Carter of Contra Costa, Corcoran of San Joaquin, Heath of Santa Cruz and Weaver of Humboldt—voted with Dr. May and Speaker.

That the bill is a railroad contrivance is plain on the face of the thing. According to Monday it will relieve the railroad of about $240,000 per annum of taxation, which sum will have to be collected from the people by an increased assessment. No wonder, then, that Dr. May and Jordan of Alameda received the congratulations of the agent of the railway on the passage of such an excellent bill.

It now goes to the Senate, where, as it is a constitutional amendment, it will require a two-thirds vote to pass it.

The anti-monopolists can secure one vote out of the doubtful list, their strength will be 25, which will carry the measure. They owe it to their constituents to do so. At the extra session the people had no faith in the bill and placed their trust in the House. The parts are now reversed. It is the House of which the people are distrustful and the Senate which contains the largest proportion of honest men.

In the meantime, in spite of Dr. May's objections, Monday's bill on the taxation of corporations has been voted to read a first time by a vote of 39 to 35. We had no part of it, it is true, but it can become a law, or that on the second reading, thirty-nine votes can be polled in its favor.

The purpose of the measure is to record and so waging out the political ranks. It is but fair, in view of the lists of black stockings who have published from time to time, that we should now give the names of the faithful. They were not fooled by the anti-monopoly constitutional amendment. They are men whom it will do to tie on to this question. They were:

Colman of San Mateo, De Witt of Tulare, Dooling of San Benito, Hazard of Los Angeles, Henley of Mendocino, Henry of Butte, Hiram of Contra Costa, Moffitt of Alameda, Manday of Sonoma, Watson of El Dorado.

Langtry's New Clothes.
Mrs. Langtry did not trust to an English dressmaker to prepare the dresses for her husband to wear in London. Some down country, however, it seems, she designed. How many may be who we do not pretend to know. The richest and most luxurious stuffs that Paris can produce have been used. "There are two out-door costumes," says our correspondent.
